**About Mercari: The Selling App****

Mercari: The Selling App is a shopping app where you can both buy and sell items. The app offers thousands of items from categories such as clothing, toys, electronics or shoes.

Mercari: The Selling App allows you to sell items that you no longer use or need quickly and easily. Within seconds you can upload your article. For the listing only a photo, a short description and an expected price is needed. You can not only sell used items, you can also buy them. The app offers both used and new items for sale. All items you buy or sell are conveniently shipped. This means that you no longer have to meet with buyers or sellers to complete the purchase. The app also has a Buyer Protection, which holds your payment until you receive the item and confirm that it is in perfect condition.

**Mercari: The Selling App - Features:****

- Sell used items: Mercari: The Selling App allows you to sell used items quickly and easily. No matter if it's fashion, electronics, sporting goods, shoes or jewelry, you can sell everything here. To upload an article, all you have to do is shoot a photo of the article, add a short description and set a price. A special feature of Mercari is that all items are always shipped. Personal meetings with the buyer are therefore no longer necessary to complete the purchase. The app makes the shipping of the article as easy as possible. If you sell an item, you will immediately receive a printable shipping label by e-mail.
- Buy items of all kinds: You can not only sell items, but also buy them. The app offers used and new items for sale. Every day more than 100,000 new articles are listed. No matter what you are looking for: here you will definitely find something.
- Benefit from Buyer Protection: Mercari: The Selling App has built-in Buyer Protection that protects all your purchases. The app holds your payment until you have received the item and confirmed that the item complies with the product description.

Conclusion: Mercari: The Selling App ensures a relaxed buying and selling experience. With this app, you can buy and sell items of any kind in seconds. Since all purchases are secured through the Mercari Buyer Protection, you do not have to worry about fraudsters or dubious sellers.
