**About Covet Fashion****

Covet Fashion is a fashion game in which players can create stylish outfits. In the so-called style challenges, outfits must be created for different occasions, which are then evaluated by other players.

Covet Fashion is a game for fashion lovers. The mobile game allows you to create creative and stylish outfits. The game includes a wide selection of clothes and accessories from famous brands like Calvin Klein or Vince Camuto. Periodically, there are so-called style challenges where you need to create an outfit for a specific occasion. Once you've created your outfit, it will be rated by other players. Conversely, of course, you also have the opportunity to rate outfits of other players. The outfits that have received the best ratings win the challenge. Another special feature of the game is that you can buy all clothes from the game in real life: The garments and accessories are always provided with links to sales pages.
