

The Game of Life

About The Game Of Life

With the app "The Game of Life", Hasbro's popular board game can now also be played on smartphones and tablets. As in the original, players have to make decisions and get as much out of their professional and personal careers as possible.

With the app "The Game of Life", you can now play the eponymous board game anywhere and anytime. Spin the wheel of fortune, make decisions, and create the best possible life for you. You can play "The Game of Life" not only against computer opponents, but also with up to 3 friends on one device or online against players from all over the world. In addition, many mini games await you in the app, where you can compete against other players. Get in your car, drive across the field and reach the last yellow field as the winner.

The Game of Life - Features:

- Live the life of your dreams: As in the original game, the app is also about getting the most out of your professional and personal career. At the beginning of the game you choose a character and a vehicle. With this vehicle you now drive across the field. During the game, you have to keep spinning a wheel of fortune and make decisions about your future life. The player who has the most money and most status symbols at the end of the game wins.
- Play with your friends: You can play "The Game of Life" against either computer opponents or against your friends. Here you have the choice whether you want to play against three of your friends on a device or whether you prefer to compete online against players from all around the world. With the new multiplayer mode of the app, you can easily and quickly connect with other players and always find exciting opponents.
- Many mini-games: In the app are many mini-games available, in which you can compete against other players.
- Play even faster: If you do not have that much time, you can also play shorter rounds. In fast mode you not only enjoy a shorter playing time, but also different conditions that lead to victory. You always have to solve new tasks especially fast.
- Chat with other players: In order to communicate better with your fellow players, the app has a built-in chat in the game. For example, you can use this chat to send messages or emoticons to other players.

Conclusion: With the app of the classic game "The Game of Life" you can now enjoy the popular gaming fun also on the go. A big advantage of the app is that you can play against three friends on one device or against players from all over the world in online multiplayer mode.
