

Episode - Choose Your Story

**About Episode - Choose Your Story****

In Episode - Choose Your Story, players can become part of a story and influence its course through various decisions.

Episode - Choose Your Story provides over 50,000 different stories that you can influence individually through your decisions. In each story you play a character who has to make various decisions about the course of the story. When you make a decision, it has an impact on the story and your character. Enjoy love stories, become a star or reveal mysterious secrets. In addition, you have many stories available which are based on popular movies or TV series.

**Episode - Choose Your Story: Features****

- Make Important Decisions: In Episode - Choose Your Story, you play a character in a story you choose. Overall, you can choose between over 50,000 different stories, which are about love, friendship or celebrity. Since you are an active part of the story, you have to make decisions over and over again that influence the further course of the story.
- Create your own character: In order that you can better put yourself in the position of your character and the story, the design of your character is entirely up to you. Choose the right hairstyle or cool clothes for your character and create an individual figure that meets your expectations.
- Well-known films, series and stars: In Episode - Choose Your Story you'll find stories which are created specifically for the app, as well as stories based on popular movies and series. You can for example become part of the popular TV series Pretty Little Liars or the popular movie Girls Club. In addition, you will encounter stars such as Demi Lovato in numerous stories, which give you great advice on your way.
- Write your own story: If you want to get creative, you can also write your very own story. Imagine an exciting storyline, create characters and share your story with the large community of Episode. There are no limits to your creativity.

Conclusion: In Episode - Choose Your Story, you can experience and influence romantic, funny and exciting stories up close. Choose from over 50,000 stories, create your character individually, and make important decisions that will influence the course of the story. In addition, you will meet famous stars from TV series or films in many stories, so that you can even become part of your favorite TV series or your favorite movie.