Shooters.io Space Arena - Features:

- Increase Your Fleet: In Shooters.io Space Arena, your goal is to own the largest fleet on the playing field. To increase your own fleet, you have to shoot down enemy spaceships. If you destroy the spaceships of a hostile fleet, these spaceships will belong to your fleet from that point on. But watch out: The other players are also aiming for your fleet.
- Survive as long as possible: The longer you survive on the field, the more points you get. If you have many points, you can make it to the top of the leaderboard.
- Kill the best players: Even if you have a small spaceship and a small fleet, you can still shoot down the best players in Shooters.io. Everyone has the same opportunities here. If you shoot down the best players, you'll get twice as many points for each destroyed spaceship. You only get even more points if you shoot the best player with the highest score: His death means fivefold points for you. When you focus on shooting the best players, you can collect points very quickly and make it to the top of the leaderboard.

Conclusion: At Shooters.io Space Arena, you must be strategically wise to make your fleet the largest fleet in the game as fast as possible. Shoot powerful players and big fleets, score many points and make it to the leaderboard. Shooters.
