

Viber Messenger – Text & Call

About Viber Messenger

Viber Messenger is a messaging and calling app that allows users to write messages as well as make calls and video calls.

Viber Messenger is a messaging app that has over 900 million users worldwide and is characterized by many innovative features. Since the app uses the Internet connection of your smartphone or tablet to send messages or make voice and video calls, there are no additional charges for you. Because of that, you can have e.g. free international calls. You also have the option of sending short instant video messages or delete messages that were accidentally sent.

Viber Messenger - Features:

- Free messaging and calling app: With Viber Messenger, you can stay in touch with your friends and relatives even easier. With the app you can not only send messages, but also, for example, make voice or video calls. Since the app always uses the Internet connection of your smartphone or tablet, there are no additional charges for sending messages or phone calls. This allows you, for example, to make free international calls. If typing is too cumbersome or takes too much time, you can also record audio messages. You also have the possibility to start a group chat and write up to 250 contacts at the same time.
- Instant video messages: If you want to give your contacts a quick glimpse of specific situations or moments, you have the possibility to do so with short instant video messages. To record a short 30-second video, just hold your finger on the Instant Video icon and the recording will begin.
- Secure messages and calls: To protect your data from third parties, all messages and calls are protected by special encryption.
- Delete messages: If you have accidentally sent a message to the wrong person, it can be deleted in seconds with just one click.
- Chat with Public Accounts: With Viber Messenger, you can not only chat with people from your contacts list, but also with public accounts. For example, you have the possibility to write with your favorite brands, big companies, or celebrities.

Conclusion: Viber Messenger offers you many innovative features that simplify the communication with your friends and relatives.
